NOTES AND INSTRUCTIONS

Identification Documents and Certification

- The copies of identification documents, especially the identification card, must be legible. The photograph must be clear and the person identifiable from the photograph.
- The copies of identification documents can only be accepted where they have been certified by suitable certifiers within the last 3 months.
 - The certifiers should be suitable persons, such as, lawyers, accountants, directors or managers of regulated financial institutions, a notary public, a member of the judiciary or a senior civil servant/government official. No individuals should certify their own documents.
 - The certifier should print and sign his/her name, indicate his/her professional designation and designation number, institution name & position, phone number, contact email.
- Preferably, the certification should read: "The document is certified by me as a true and accurate copy of the original". The certification should also confirm that the photograph bears a true likeness to the individual requesting the certification.
- In cases where the certification is attached to the copy document page, the wording should clearly identify what documentation is being certified including specific references to the name, passport number and date of birth of the person.
- In cases where the identification card does not bear a signature, the bearer of the document should sign the copy and the signature should be certified together with the document itself (i.e. the certifier should state: "and the bearer of the document has signed in my presence").
- Where documents or certification is in a language other than English or Chinese, certified translation is required.
- If a document is presented in an electronic form, it may be regarded as an original if it is evident that it was issued or created in such an electronic form. However, the Fund (or its delegate) reserves the right to request hard copy documents, certification and/or additional information as it sees necessary.

Beneficial Owners

- A beneficial owner means the natural person who ultimately owns or controls the customer or on whose behalf a transaction or activity is being conducted and includes but is not restricted to:
 - In the case of a legal person other than a company whose securities are listed on a recognised stock exchange⁴, a natural person who ultimately owns or controls, whether through direct or indirect ownership or control, 10% or more of the shares or voting rights in the legal person;
 - In the case of any legal person, a natural person who otherwise exercises ultimate effective control over the management of the legal person; or
 - In the case of a legal arrangement, the trustee or other person who exercises ultimate effective control over the legal arrangement.

The Politically Exposed Persons and their Family Members and Close Associates

- A Politically Exposed Person ("PEP") is an individual who holds an important public position, including a head of state, head of government, senior politician, senior government, judicial or military official, senior executive of a state-owned corporation and an important political party official, or an individual who holds a prominent position of an international organization, including a director, deputy director and member of the board or equivalent function.
 - The PEP defined here does not include a middle-ranking or more junior official of any of the categories mentioned above.
- A family member of a PEP is an individual who is related to the PEP either directly (consanguinity) or through marriage or similar (civil) forms of partnership, including a spouse, a partner, a child or a parent of the PEP, or a spouse or a partner of a child of the PEP.
- A close associate to a PEP is an individual who is closely connected to the PEP, either socially or professionally, including an individual who is a beneficial owner of a legal person or trust of which the PEP is also a beneficial owner, or an individual who is the beneficial owner of a legal person or trust that is set up for the benefit of the PEP.
